Upon arrival, the party attendees should gather in the Aerobic Studio where tables and chairs will be set up for the number of participants scheduled. ROCK WALL PARTIES

Rock climbing parties are scheduled for one hour and forty-five minutes. The party will begin at "The Rock" with one hour and 15 minutes of fun-filled climbing on all four sides of the wall. Two enthusiastic, trained rock wall staff members will ensure the climbers are safe and have a great experience during your child's special day. After guests are finished climbing, they will adjourn to the adjacent lounge area where party tables are set up for the food, cake, and gift portion of the party. The nature of activities in the facility may result in traffic through the lounge; however, parties are set up off to the side and are typically fairly isolated.
